PANJI AND THE BLUE DREAM

Panji is a cheerful 16-year-old boy who has been bravely fighting Chronic Kidney Disease. Through every challenge, he never lets go of hope — especially with his loving mother always by his side, whispering courage into his heart.

For as long as he could remember, Panji dreamed of having a blue electric bike — a symbol of freedom, joy, and the chance to feel the wind against his face as he rides under the open sky. Every day, he asked his mom when his wish would come true, his eyes filled with quiet excitement and hope.

To help make this long-awaited dream a reality, Make-A-Wish® Indonesia collaborated with Redpumpkin.AI & Iyengar Yoga, joining hands to bring joy, strength, and encouragement to Panji and his family.

Then one magical day, it finally happened. At the Izzara Apartment park, his Wish Granters revealed his dream come true — a beautiful blue bike waiting just for him. With a bright smile, Panji hopped on and, to everyone's surprise, began riding with ease. His mom watched in awe, tears welling in her eyes — her son, who had never ridden a regular bicycle before, was now gliding with joy.

That day, the park was filled with laughter, love, and hope. For Panji, the blue bike was more than just a gift — it was a promise of strength, happiness, and dreams that keep shining ahead.

When Panji's wish for an electric bike came true, I felt so happy. It was the wish he talked about every night before bed, and Alhamdulillah, it finally happened. I'm truly grateful — my son is so happy. Thank you, Make-A-Wish® Indonesia. Thank you, Redpumpkin.AI
